Contents

THE ARKANSAS HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION’S SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY: OFFICIAL PROCLAMATIONS 1

NICOLAS FOUCALUT AND THE QUAPAWS
Linda C. Jones 4

MEXICAN BRACEROS AND ARKANSAS COTTON: AGRICULTURAL LABOR AND CIVIL RIGHTS IN THE POST-WORLD WAR II SOUTH
J. Justin Castro 27

“IMMORAL OR OTHERWISE OFFENSIVE MATTER”: TOOK GATHINGS’ 1952 INVESTIGATION OF BROADCASTING
Michael Bowman 47

PRESIDENT’S REPORT TO THE MEMBERSHIP,
2016
Timothy G. Nutt 62

BOOK REVIEWS........................................................................................................................................66

BOOK AND MEDIA NOTES..........................................................................................................................80

NEWS AND NOTICES...................................................................................................................................82

©Arkansas Historical Association, 2016
ISSN 0004-1823
BOOK REVIEWS

Kirk, Race and Ethnicity in Arkansas: New Perspectives
By Steve Striffler.........................................................................................................66

Smith, Louisiana and the Gulf South Frontier, 1500-1821
By Kathleen DuVal.....................................................................................................68

Schultz, The March to the River: From the Battle of Pea Ridge to Helena, Spring 1862
By Kim Allen Scott.....................................................................................................69

Clampitt, The Civil War and Reconstruction in Indian Territory
By Jeffrey V. Pearson.................................................................................................71

Carter, Kellison, and Wallinger, Forestry in the U.S. South: A History
By Don C. Bragg........................................................................................................73

Cochran and McCray, Lights! Camera! Arkansas!: From Broncho Billy to Billy Bob Thornton
By Paul Cullum..........................................................................................................75