

Call for Presentations

Natural States of Being: Gender and Sexuality in Arkansas History

Arkansas Historical Association 81st Annual Conference

April 21-23, 2022

Magnolia, Arkansas

The Arkansas Historical Association (AHA) invites presentation proposals for its eighty-first annual conference, to be held in Magnolia, April 21-23, 2022. Originally known for agriculture and then as the home of Southern Arkansas University, Magnolia has also become an important industrial center since World War II. We seek presentations on a broad array of topics from all time periods that explore how gender and sexuality have shaped Arkansas's history.

Presentations will be limited to twenty minutes. The use of audio-visual elements is encouraged.

Please send proposals of approximately 200 words to:

Brian K. Robertson, program chair
CALs Butler Center for Arkansas Studies
100 Rock Street
Little Rock, AR 72201
501.320.5723
brianr@cals.org

Proposals should be submitted by October 29, 2021, and include a mailing address, telephone number, and email address. Proposals may be submitted by email. Please contact the program chair with any questions. It is now required that in order to participate in the conference, all presenters must be members in good standing of the Arkansas Historical Association. Membership details are available on the AHA website, arkansashistoricalassociation.org.